AUTUMN SUN

Directed by Eduardo Mignona
Argentina, Spanish w/ English subtitles
1 hour 43 minutes

Clara, a middle aged Jewish woman, feels the need to create a contrived relationship with a man of her own faith because her American brother is coming to visit her. Perfectly happy alone, she knows it will please her brother if he finds her with someone. So, she places an ad in the paper and meets Raul, who though handsome and charming, is also a Gentile. Clara decides to give him a crash course in Judaism, and soon an unexpected relationship has been set into motion.

After the screening, Dr. Lawrence Baron, a professor and director of the Lipinsky Institute for Judaic Studies at San Diego State University, will facilitate a discussion.

This event is part of "Stories of Faith: Religion and Diversity in San Diego," the Library's five-month series of programs consisting of dance, music, live theater, films, exhibits, lectures and panel discussions with the goal of enabling participants to learn more about each other's beliefs and values. The project is made possible by a Community Speaks grant from the California Council of the Humanities.
